Excerpt: ... () And, in the course of Jesus's Ministry, he mentioned many other causes why men did not receive the word than in those parables, as must be obvious to every one who reads with attention his discourses to the people who attended him. Thus, when he said, to some of the unbelieving Jews.--How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? I will just subjoin the following texts, in which he hath particularly mentioned several other evident causes of mens being tempted not to receive the word, that may be compared to those represented by the highway, without giving the least intimation of the wicked one taking away the word out of their heart. Luke xiii. 24. xiv. 25--35. But what just or satisfactory proof is there to be given why it ought to be believed that Satan tempts men by taking away the word out of the heart of those Jesus compared to the highway on which the feed was sown, lest they should believe and be saved, and yet not tempt or draw away those who have received the word with joy; and where, for a time, it promised fair for bringing forth fruit? For it is undeniable, that Jesus did not attribute it to the temptation of Satan, but to other manifest and common temptations to men, which cannot but be admitted, and which his hearers could easily understand; but, I presume, they could not, as it respected Satan as a fallen angel, for reasons and proofs already offered. The adversary to the several persons above represented, were the things of this world, such as Jesus mentioned, which too strongly operated upon the heart of some of them, as reasons why the word did not take any root in it: or why they did not accept of the invitation to the supper 5 and of others, who received it with joy yet...
