

Dancing with God - First Year Thoughts on the Loss of My Daughter

Your Daughter is Dead. On June 3rd, 2009, professional ballerina, Makenzie Stocker walked out her back door, jumped into a friends car and headed out for a photo shoot. Her beautiful figure was silhouetted against a flawless sunset as the camera caught the last moments of her 18 year old life. Before heading home, Makenzie called her dad and said, I love you daddy; Im on my way home. Eight minutes later, the car in which she was a passenger was broadsided and she was killed instantly. Pastor and Author, Todd Stocker, was devastated. Encouraged by a friend, Todd began blogging about the emotional journey on which he found himself. This incredible and emotional book chronicles the year following the accident as Todd was comforted by the Lord in amazing and powerful ways. For more, go to www.toddstocker.com
