

Medallion

Imagine waking up one day realizing you're immortal without knowing who you are or where you belong? At an early age Jacob Handel realizes that something about him is just a little bit different. As a child, raised in an orphanage, Jacob begins to feel the struggle burn inside. With the help of his mentor, a kindly man named Ian Meredith, Jacob's direction remains positive, even under harsh conditions. That is until his tenth birthday when Ian disappears and Jacob feels that he has been betrayed by his only friend. As the years unfold, Jacob becomes a recluse, ignoring his singleness; he drowns his fears with the bottle. Then one day, a mysterious blackbird delivers a golden medallion and he has to face the greatest challenge of his existence. With a pre-determined destiny, Jacob holds the fate of a kingdom in the balance as he endures his awakening. As the sides line up, good vs. evil. One man must make a decision. Medallion is a fast paced fantasy set in San Antonio, Texas.
