

Excerpt from The Baptism of Infants, a Reasonable Service: Founded Upon Scripture, and Undoubted Apostolic Tradition; In Which Its Moral Purposes and Use in Religion Are Shewn The middle-way betwixt these two extremes, is that which is here chosen. It can with no reason be imagined, that a God of infinite mercy, who hateth nothing that he hath made, will permit the having, or the wanting, the ceremony of baptismal water, to determine finally and irrevocably the everlasting {state of a dying Infant: or, that for the neglect of this ceremonial work, (which yet the Infant could in no wise help) it shall be doomed to everlasting torments among devils and apostate spirits. This be far from the almighty Judge! About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
