LOVING, OPEN AND TRANSFORMING: QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING HOMOSEXUALITY AND GAY MARRIAGES FROM A BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE is written for a multicultural audience in an easy to read question and answer format. It takes the best of the academic and scholarly resources available and condenses the material for the average church member--whatever his or her profession or educational background. It includes a complete set of lessons plans/facilitators guides and a complete set of class handouts/home assignments for use as a small group Bible study and as a supplemental curriculum for Sunday School. Pastors, teachers, youth and small group leaders will find this resource to be an easy to use and easy to facilitate Bible study curriculum. Most of the lessons can be covered in 45-50 minutes and can be broken into two separate weekly sessions to facilitate more group discussion and sharing. Because most of the lessons are self-contained, leaders can pick and choose which of the 9 lessons to facilitate in order to tailor-make a program that lasts from 4 weeks to 12 weeks long. God loves you just the way you are, but loves you too much to leave you that way. (Old Anonymous African-American Church Saying) How should Christians model the Gospel to homosexuals? How do we model Christs love? Can the church be true to its calling to proclaim the truth and be loving at the same time? Are truth and love, justice and mercy incompatible? According to Ephesians 4:15, Love should always make us tell the truth. Then we will grow in every way and be more like Christ, the head. It is our belief that love and justice, truth and mercy are not only compatible, but also reconcilable. Through the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, Gods perfect love and mercy was reconciled with Gods perfect truth and justice. What follows is an attempt to express how Christians should live out our calling to speak the truth in love regarding the Gospel as it pertains to homosexuality, gays, lesbians, and bisexuals.
