

This Womans Journey

Life can be a cup full of trouble for some and for others, it can be a bed of roses. We all travel different paths to reach our destination. Sometimes, we question our experiences and decisions along the way. We are all on a journey to somewhere, whether it is physical or spiritual. At fifteen years of age I discovered that I wanted to get somewhere in life, but I had no idea on how to get there, or the means to go. So I grabbed my thoughts and a pen and put my journey on paper. From that point until now, every poem that was written comes together as a story and shows a pattern. It was like putting together missing pieces of a puzzle. Only God knows my fate and my end, but here I give you my autobiography in poetry form. I welcome you to this womans journey.
