

Appalachian Trail in New York Hiking Guide - NY 55 to Connecticut State Line

Part of a series of hiking guides for the Appalachian Trail. These guides are broken down by sections to make it easier for you to plan your Appalachian Trail adventure. No big books to carry, no big bulky maps to unfold & fold. This 14.5 mile section of the Appalachian Trail is the last in New York for northbound thru hikers. This section of the AT features Nuclear Lake, West Mountain, the Great Swamp, the AT train stop along the Metro Railroad, Dover Oak, Hammersley Ridge in the Pawling Nature Reserve and two shelters. Be sure to check out our many other hiking guides.
