

Letter to lovely father from 36 years old son, Dear father restored from death

This book content is based on the letter which I, 36 years old son, wrote to my father when he was 70 years old. I decided to write to my father because I faced the condition that my father was close to death by cardiac infarct. I would like to record my appreciation to my father as words, not just saying it. Everybody does not know whether we can see tomorrows sun rising. If you can consider to write to somebody you love, it should be the best thing which I wish. This book content will be progressed, mainly based on my memories with my father. The time line covers from my birth to moment. Index? 1. birth to before entering nursery school 2. after entering to graduating nursery school 3. early elementary school years 4. higher grade at elementary school 5. junior high school 6. high school to preparatory school student 7.
